Your data: We are required by money laundering regulations to verify your identity and address, which we will do by searching files at credit referencing agencies. If false or inaccurate information is provided and fraud is identified, details will be passed to fraud prevention agencies. Law enforcement agencies may access and use this information. We and other organisations may also access and use this information to prevent fraud and money laundering; for example, when: Checking details on applications for credit and credit-related or other facilities; Managing credit and credit-related accounts or facilities; Recovering debt; Checking details on proposals and claims for all types of insurance, and; Checking details of job applicants and employees. Please contact us at Fraud Unit, Post Office Savings, 1 Donegall Square South, Belfast BT1 5LR if you want to receive details of the relevant fraud prevention agencies. We and other organisations may access and use from other countries the information recorded by fraud prevention agencies. If you supply false or inaccurate information or if fraud is suspected this will be recorded by the credit referencing agency and shared with other similar organisations. When credit referencing agencies receive a search from us they will place a search 'footprint' whether or not this application proceeds. We will give credit reference agencies other information about the day-to-day running of your account. We may use the information held by credit reference agencies to check identity for anti-money laundering and fraud purposes – this does not affect your credit history. We can provide, on request, a copy of the information that credit references have about you, or copies of their leaflets that explain how credit referencing works.

Keeping you informed: Post Office[®] and our trusted partners would like to contact you about products, services and offers that might be of interest to you. Submit this form to indicate your consent to receiving marketing communications by post, phone and email. If you do not wish to receive such communications, please tick the relevant box(es) below.

(For joint investments both investors must sign.) I/We have read and understood the information under Data Protection in the Terms & Conditions and confirm the information provided by me/us is true and accurate to the best of my/our knowledge and belief. Please read all the information you have been given and these Terms & Conditions carefully as it is important that you understand them. I/We confirm receipt of the Depositor Information Sheet. If you have any questions about the Terms & Conditions or need more information you must ask us before signing this agreement. Bank of Ireland UK will undertake electronic checks to confirm your identity and permanent address with a credit referencing agency. If these checks are unsuccessful we will need to contact you to confirm your identity and address.
