How we use the data
We may inform other organisations that you are no longer at the old address. We may pass the business name, old address, new address, number of employees, company registration number, company type, telephone and move date included on the Redirection form on to organisations who already have an existing relationship with you for updating purposes. If you are a sole trader or a company with 10 employees or fewer and you do not wish us to do this, please mark an ‘X’ on the form. Further information about the use of your data is also contained in the Business Redirection terms and conditions. Visit royalmail.com/business-redirection

Don’t miss out on your mail

• If your business is moving, make sure your mail doesn’t get lost along the way. We can redirect your mail for up to 4 years (or 6 months for PO Box addresses), either in the UK or abroad.
• We can even redirect Royal Mail Special Delivery Guaranteed and Royal Mail Signed For deliveries within the UK. However, we can’t guarantee the delivery times as we would normally.
• Any item bigger than a letter format cannot be redirected abroad.
• This product is to be used when applying for an entire Business move. Please apply for our Business Diversion product by downloading the form at royalmail.com/diversion if:
  - Only part of your business is moving (leaving someone behind from an address that only your company occupies) or
  - If you are moving all or part of your business from a multi occupied address you share with other people or businesses which is delivered to a single delivery point.

We can’t redirect from an address you share with organisations other than your own affiliates (including residential addresses) where you do not have a dedicated mail delivery. You may be able to use Royal Mail Business Diversion as an alternative – see royalmail.com/diversion

Personal mail

Business Redirection is based on the company name so we will not redirect personal mail without the company name in the address. But if you work from home as a sole trader, the service includes both your personal and business mail. Others in your household will need to apply separately using the ‘Redirecting personal mail from a private address’ form. The quickest way to apply for a personal Redirection from a private address is online at royalmail.com/redirection where you can also download an application form to apply by post.

Royal Mail gives no guarantee that your new address will remain confidential. If we cannot deliver an item to your new address for any reason, it may be returned to sender, with the new address showing.

We can only redirect Royal Mail deliveries and will not be responsible for the delivery service provided by other postal operators.

Arranging your Redirection
