What to do when you really need to receive someone else’s mail...

There are many things you need to organise promptly when you take over responsibility for someone else’s affairs. If you need to redirect mail for someone who has died or for whom you have power of attorney, deputyship or similar legal authority in the UK, we can redirect all their mail to you for up to 4 years. That can be a great weight off your mind, so make Royal Mail Redirection one of the first things you do.

- You can redirect Royal Mail Special Delivery Guaranteed and Royal Mail Signed For deliveries within the UK (delivery may take longer).

Unfortunately we can’t redirect from multi-occupied premises – like nursing homes, hotels or colleges, due to the high number of people living at the address with one communal letter box/reception.

Whose mail do you need to redirect?
- Please list all the names that need a Redirection.
- Each additional individual counts as a separate charge.

Your payment

For current prices go to royalmail.com/redirection

Applying at a Post Office® branch you can pay by cash, debit or credit card. Applying by post, payment is by cheque, made payable to Royal Mail Group Ltd.

The price of the service is based on:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Length of service you want</th>
<th>Where the new address is</th>
<th>Number of people</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>12 months or 6 months or 3 months</td>
<td>UK or EU or Rest of the World</td>
<td>For example: 1 individual = application fee 2 individuals = application fee + x1 extra person fee 3 individuals = application fee + x2 extra person fee (Fees are applicable for anyone over the age of 16)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- The fee amount will depend on length of service selected, where new address is located and number of individuals having mail redirected. Fees are applicable to anyone over the age of 16.
- Please make sure you list all names separately on the form for everyone who wants their mail to be redirected. This will help our staff to fulfil the service.
- If you, or anyone else named on the form are known by different or variations of your first name and/or last name (including double-barrelled last names), please list them.
- You will only be charged 1 fee per applicant.
- If you need to redirect mail for more than 2 people from and to the same address, please provide full names for each person on a separate piece of paper and attach this to your application form. We will need relevant ID for each person as detailed in our terms and conditions.
- All mail diverted through the Redirection service will be clearly labelled as ‘Redirected’. This will help you identify which individuals or companies still need to be updated with your new address.

Remember we need 5 working days to set up or renew your Redirection. Please allow plenty of time for your application.

Proof of identity
- The ID you need to provide depends on if you are applying for someone who has died or for whom you have power of attorney, deputyship or similar legal authority and whether you are applying by post or through a Post Office® branch; see section 8 of the form.
- You must send original documents as proof of ID. We cannot accept photocopies or documents downloaded or printed from the internet. We will accept certified copies of the death certificate and power of attorney document.
- We can only accept passports and driving licences at Post Office® branches.

Your Agreement

If you do not sign the form we cannot process your application.

By submitting the form, you confirm that you are entitled to apply to redirect the mail of all persons included in your application and understand how we will use your and their data as described in our ts&cs.

Set up

You can take out a Redirection in periods of up to 3, 6 or 12 months.

Renewing the Redirection

You can renew the Redirection for up to 4 years. Before the end of the Redirection period, we will write to you to ask if you wish to renew the Redirection.

You can apply at any Post Office® branch where you can pay using cash, debit or credit card.
